

JOIN FELIX ROSENQVIST FOR AN EXCLUSIVE TRIP TO THE INTERNATIONAL F3 FINALE IN MACAU

Felix Rosenqvist, 18, is one of Sweden's most promising racing drivers. After three Formula Renault championship titles in Europe and Asia in 2008-2009, this year has seen Felix take the step to the world's most important proving ground for talented and up-coming drivers; Formula 3. Following two victories and no less than seven podiums so far during his debut season in the fiercely competitive German F3 series, Felix has now been selected for participation
